

English Village Carols in the pub

Our music and carols are generously shared by Ian Russell, an emeritus professor at the University of Aberdeen. Since 1969 he has conducted extensive fieldwork into singing traditions in the English Pennines, especially Christmas carolling, and has written and broadcast on the subject. To support his work, we recommend Ian's book The Sheffield Book of Village Carols: <http://www.villagecarols.org.uk/publications/sheffield-book.html>

Sundays in November and December every year
